

Tinker General Manager, Charles Eaves, addressed the monthly meeting of the Tinker Area AAFES Retiree Group; joining him was Tinker Mainstore manager, Nenti Anjain. Mr. Eaves and Ms. Anjain discussed the new ID requirements to enter the base as well as AAFES' major appliance agreement with HOME DEPOT. A lengthy question and answer session followed with lots of pertinent information shared. The retirees commented that they felt very connected with AAFES due to the fact that the General Manager and Mainstore manager took their time to share information about upcoming changes and also answered many questions about the current operation of the Exchange.
